Al Parker, a Chicago hiker, won the five-mile walk promoted by Dan O'Leary at Gaelic park Sunday. C. Kennedy was second and D. J. Ketz third. Other walking matches, one of them for the women, were postponed because of the weather conditions.

Next Sunday a ladies' two-mile race and men's three and five-mile races will be staged at the same park. O'Leary announces that walking races will be held every Sunday during September.

Mrs. H. Almert, star woman shot of the Grand American handicap tourney, and L. C. Hukins of Chicago Sunday won trophies offered by J. W. Keller for women and men shooters in the feature events of the weekly shoot of the Chicago Gun club. Mrs. Almert broke 42 targets out of 50. Keller smashed 94 clay pigeons out of a hundred.

Chicago Swedish A. C. won the athletic contests held in connection with the annual picnic of the Swedish societies at Harm's park, Sunday.

Chicago Americans trimmed the Washington Heights soccer crew, 2 to 0, Sunday.

Int. Harvester soccer team beat Burnside United team, 3 to 1.

Disturber V., the new 800-horse-power hydroplane, which, on its trial trip Saturday sank to the bottom of the lake front harbor, was not damaged badly enough to prevent its appearance in the speed boat races to be held Sept. 7-15.

The tennis tournament for the championship of the country will start Tuesday morning at the courts of the West Side Tennis club, at Forest Hills, Long Island, N. Y. 128 leading players of the country are in.

Cold weather and wet track forced postponement of bike races scheduled for last night at Riverview park velodrome. They'll be held next Sunday, weather permitting.

Larry Cheney is no more a Cub. The pitcher who was once the mainstay of the West Side team has been traded to the Brooklyn club. Roger Bresnahan got Joe Schultz and a cash consideration in return for Larry. The amount of the coin given was not mentioned.

Schultz is a third baseman by choice. He has been doing utility work for the Robins. Bresnahan will, in all probability, make use of the new man right away. Possibly Bobby Fisher will warm the bench for a spell.

Wilbur Robinson of the Dodgers has the National league pennant in mind very strong. His crew is going
